

AMC signed its first educational agreement with TUTE University

During the last AMC'S visit to China, the company signed up the first educational agreement with TUTE, Tianjin University of Technology and Education. Both institutions set up the basis of their collaboration, which will permit TUTE's students to participate in an internship program in AMC's offices in Spain.

TUTE has nowadays more than 13000 students. More than 10.000 of them are registered in technical degrees like: automotive engineering, mechanical engineering, automation engineering, electronic engineering, mathematics and physics and computer engineering